Monumental and Old Lisbon

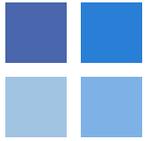

Day 02 - Full Day Tour and Lunch in downtown

We'll start the day by unveiling the monumental district of Belém – the historical quarter of the capital - the charm of its magnificent century old monuments and the taste of its “delicacies” - Belém exquisite pastries.

Continue by bus to Estrela quarter where guests will then be invited to board specially chartered Old Lisbon Trams and start an exciting sightseeing downhill, uphill through picturesque streets of Lisbon on to the old districts around the Castle.

Once passed the Cathedral (Sé) guests then walk up hill to visit St. George's Castle. From its impressive walls terrace we can admire a breathtaking view of the city and the river .

Monumental and Old Lisbon

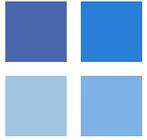

Day 02 - Full Day Tour and Lunch in downtown (continuation)

Get dazzled by the discovery of truly unexpected places while walking downhill through the winding streets, alleys and staircases of the old medieval borough of Alfama.

Back to “downtown” enjoy a deserved “lunch break” in the main square facing the river.

After the meal free time to discover downtown Lisbon - the “heart” of the city – the pedestrian shopping streets, Rossio Square. Chiado fashionable quarter and return by bus to the hotel via Av. Liberdade - the main Avenue and its International premium boutiques!

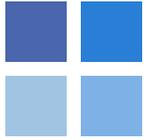

Inspired in the old breweries

Day 02 - Lunch downtown (included in tour)

We'll have lunch at the coolest venue in Lisbon on the iconic Commerce Square. Museu da Cerveja has a authentic features of old brewery, where culture, beer and food come together in perfect harmony. For the curious ones, the top floor has an intriguing museum about beer from the Portuguese speaking countries.

The menu offers a traditional Portuguese gastronomy with mouthwatering delights from delicious Lisbon steaks to seafood wonders. Always combined with a cool and tasty beer.

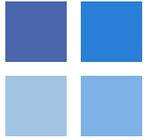

Urban trendy & chic

Day 02 - Dinner - Kais Restaurant

After a day discovering the marvels of this city, we'll have dinner at Kais restaurant. Located by the riverside, this former harbor warehouse, was the old maintenance building of the traditional electric trams of Lisbon.

Completely restored, the Kais, is one of the most trendy restaurants in Lisbon and the venue we are suggesting for the gala dinner. Its decoration mixes the cold industrial architecture, made of brick walls, an iron structures, keeping some the old existing machinery and rusty chains, with the elegance of a simple decoration, based on a heavy candle light decoration, and olive trees, strategic lighted from the ground giving it a Mediterranean flavor.

Glorious Eden & The Sunny Coast

Day 03 - Full Day Tour and Lunch

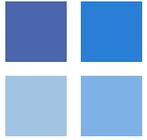

An entire day uncovering the beauty of Sintra and the Coast of Lisbon.

Our journey starts moving to Sintra, a beautiful small “fairy tale” village with lovely palaces and manor houses hidden by the luxuriant vegetation.

Visit of the Royal Town Palace that was the residence of many Portuguese Kings since the 14th Century. Beautiful tiles, painted ceilings and centuries old walls, as well as an unusually huge kitchen.

Then guests can enjoy a leisurely “Glorius Eden” of Sintra, walking around the historic center exploring the many local lovely shops and cafés with its fantastic local pastries.

Glorious Eden & The Sunny Coast

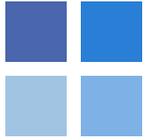

Day 03 - Full Day Tour and Lunch

Situated in the Historical center of Sintra, facing The National Palace of Sintra, Hotel Central is an unique and elegant restaurant divided into three different rooms that reflect the past charm and glamour. The 1st floor room and terrace benefits from a fantastic Sintra's mountains view and during the night it's possible to admire the Castelo dos Mouros shining under the moonlight.

Recently redecorated and upgraded with refined cuisine, both Portuguese and International, high quality in product and service are guaranteed.

Central will bring you back in the past beauty enjoying the fascinating modern Sintra.

Glorious Eden & The Sunny Coast

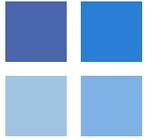

Day 03 - Full Day Tour and Lunch

After lunch drive around the mountain on a fantastic panoramic drive of the wild coast of Guincho.

We'll finish our tour in the charming Cascais, an old and suggestive fishermen's village where a stop will be made to enjoy the suggestive frame of the bay.

Return to Lisboa via Estoril road along the ocean and the river Tagus back to your hotel in Lisbon.

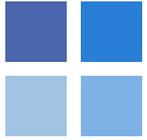

In the best “Fado” tradition!

Day 03 – Clube de Fado Restaurant – Option 01

For our last night at the city of seven hills we suggest dinner at Clube de Fado restaurant. A distinctive restaurant, situated in Lisbon’s traditional and quaint quarter of Alfama. Featuring a sophisticated and classical Portuguese décor surrounded by ancient stone columns and arches, giving this space an irreplaceable style.

Their menu consists of a delicious variety of Portuguese dishes, satisfying all palates. However the true essence of Clube do Fado is the live Fado music throughout your meal.

“Circled by Fado”!

Day 03- Alfama à Noite Restaurant – Option 02

A typical farewell to Lisbon with a traditional Portuguese manner, appreciating a fado night. Alfama à Noite is a traditional restaurant in the heart of Alfama, the old district of Lisbon, offering you an unforgettable experience. Lose yourself in the Portuguese culture and have a dinner surrounded by Fado music, typical and ancient Portuguese music. Alfama à Noite can delight your night with the best fado singers in Lisbon.

The menu offers unbelievable Portuguese food, allowing the discovery of traditional Portuguese recipes. A dinner in this restaurant is a necessary stop and it will give you spectacular moments.
